DEFENDANT: Kevin C. Pearce Jr.
CASE NUMBER: 7:22-CR-009-S-REW-03

IMPRISONMENT

The defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a total term of:

Sixty-Six Months on each of Counts 3 and 12, to be served concurrently, for a total of SIXTY-SIX (66) MONTHS

The Court intends that Defendant receive credit for one day custody toward his federal sentence as to his processing by the U.S. Marshals Service, consistent with § 3585.

- ☒ The court makes the following recommendations to the Bureau of Prisons:
- That the defendant participate in a full medical screening and have access to appropriate treatment/placement.
That the defendant participate in any appropriate mental/emotional health screening and treatment for which he qualifies.
That the defendant be designated to FCI Morgantown. The BOP should be careful and purposeful regarding the defendant's handling and placement given his former employment as a BOP corrections officer, the nature of the crimes, and case dynamics.
The Court expects effective protection of Pearce, by the BOP, during all phases and locations of custody.
- ☒ The defendant is remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal.
- ☐ The defendant shall surrender to the United States Marshal for this district:
- ☐ at _____ ☐ a.m. ☐ p.m. on _____.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of :

One Year on each of Counts 3 and 12, to run concurrently, for a total of ONE (1) YEAR

STATUTORILY MANDATED CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess or use a controlled substance.
3. You must submit to a drug test within 15 days of supervision commencement. USPO shall subsequently test Defendant at least twice thereafter and may test Defendant as frequently as monthly/weekly/biweekly during the supervision term. USPO may seek Court permission for more frequent testing, if warranted. USPO may re-test if any test sample is invalid.
 - ☒ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (Check, if applicable.)
4. ☐ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (Check, if applicable.)
5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (Check, if applicable.)
6. ☐ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (Check, if applicable.)
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (Check, if applicable.)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached pages. The Court has considered§ 3583(d)(1)-(3) in formulating all additional conditions.

DEFENDANT: Kevin C. Pearce Jr.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
12. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions.
